

THE MAN FROM ALDERSGATE

WITH BJ JOHNSTON

BJ JOHNSTON AS JOHN WESLEY

After serving 13 years as missionaries with Youth With a Mission (YWAM), BJ and his family moved from Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, where he served as the Director for the College of the Arts at the UNIVERSITY OF THE NATIONS.

They arrived in Jackson, Mississippi January of 2003 where he ministered at Belhaven College as Director of Development for the Arts, Annual Fund Director and Assistant to the Vice President of Advancement.

He has appeared in more than 50 theatre productions throughout America and is now performing THE MAN FROM ALDERSGATE, compiled from the actual journals of John Wesley by playwright Brad L. Smith.

BJ & Karen met while touring across America with a Christian singing group, THE REGENERATION. They have two sons, Ryan (23), who lives in West Hollywood, CA with his band GOODBYE ELLIOT, and Daniel (18), a music/composition major at Belhaven College in Jackson, MS.

After earning a Bachelor of Fine Arts in acting and dance from Stephen's College and a Master's degree in theatre education from Scarritt College, BJ performed several thousand one-man People Mover shows at Six Flags Over Georgia and in hundreds of schools utilizing mime, magic, music, stories and dance.

Other arts training includes studies at the Wisconsin Mime School and dance training at the Cambridge School of Ballet. He studied opera and vocal performance at Boston University.

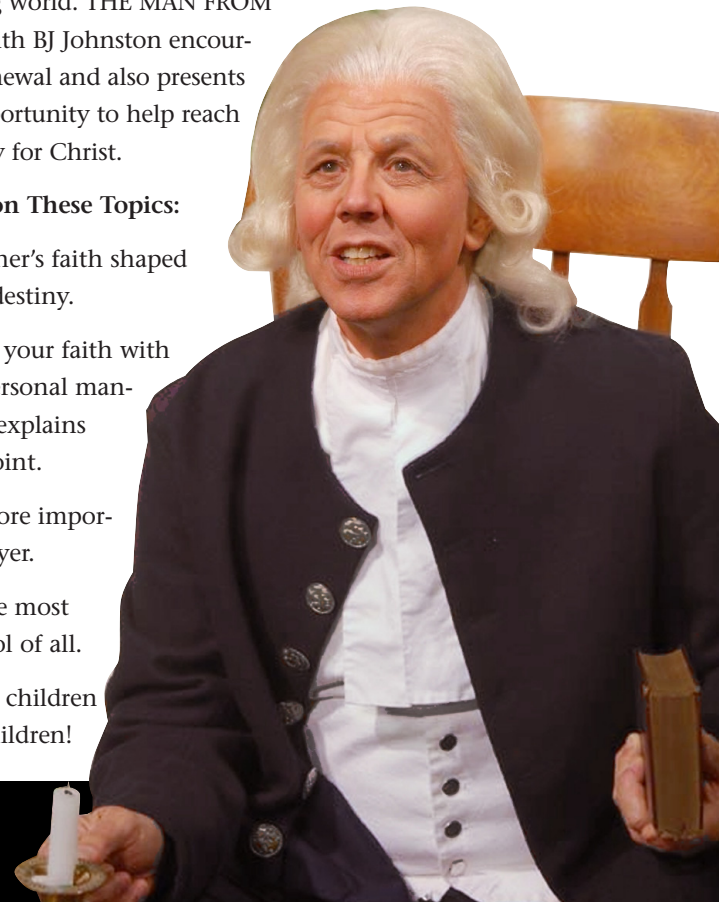

Through the powerful medium of drama THE MAN FROM ALDERSGATE with BJ Johnston, brings to life John Wesley and his dynamic ministry. Wesley tells how his transformation through faith in Jesus Christ sparked a revival that changed England and America.

He exhorts his audience to embrace a more disciplined life of faith through his teachings from the Word of God. As John Wesley shares, you will gain new insights into the importance of prayer, how personal failure can teach us to trust Christ, how religion is the most dangerous idol of all, and how a mother's faith can shape a child's destiny.

John Wesley, born in 1703, probably did more to promote holiness than any other figure in English history. You will experience the life and times of the man who rode over 250,000 miles on horseback to bring spiritual renewal to the English-speaking world. THE MAN FROM ALDERSGATE with BJ Johnston encourages spiritual renewal and also presents an excellent opportunity to help reach your community for Christ.

Wesley Shares on These Topics:

- How his mother's faith shaped his personal destiny.
- How to share your faith with others in a personal manner. He even explains how at gunpoint.
- Nothing is more important than prayer.
- Religion is the most dangerous idol of all.
- God has only children - not grandchildren!
