Educational Background

B.A.	Olivet Nazarene University, (religion) 1971
M.Div.	Nazarene Theological Seminary, 1975
Certificate	Chinese University of Hong Kong, completion of two-year intensive program in the Cantonese dialect of Chinese, 1982

D.Miss. Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, Doctor of Missiology, 1998. The major project was an interview project to determine spirit-world beliefs of members of the Church of the Nazarene in Hong Kong compared to the general non-Christian population. Conducted in Cantonese, the project used a carefully designed interview instrument based on several ethnographic interview principles such as participant observation, and the use principle (asking what the interviewee does rather than what one believes).

Associate Pastor of Mission and Membership

Description

Serve the church by developing, coordinating, and administering aspects of the church's overall ministry to the community and the world, including the Quincy Chinese congregation, as well as administering effective and comprehensive membership development and assimilation into the life of the congregation.

Responsibilities include

- Assist the senior pastor with various ministries, including membership development, preaching, interaction with Eastern Nazarene College
- Serve as liaison with the recently planted Chinese congregation, assisting with preaching, planning, and facilitating various ministries, and guide it toward full organization as a congregation.
- Teach in the ESL (English as a Second Language) outreach ministry of the church.
