

Minister of Worship

New Hope Community Church of the Nazarene is located in Lakewood, Washington, in the heart of a bustling community. We currently run around 55 in attendance on-site together with an extensive online community (due to COVID), with small groups meeting throughout the week.

We are looking for an intern or part time worship leader with potential for growing into a longer term place of ministry for our Worship services.

We would love to offer this position to a student in college who is looking for experience to help them finish their degree, a student graduating college who may be looking for a church to begin ministering in, or an individual who is seeking an opportunity to serve and gain experience as a worship leader or pastor.

The church will provide housing as well as a financial stipend. Should things work out, there will be a consideration of transitioning into an ongoing ministry role with increased pay (up for negotiation).

Responsibilities (starting at 10+ hours a week):

- Working with the Pastoral Staff team in creating the flow of worship for Sunday morning (choosing songs that align with the overall flow)
- Leading the congregation in worship via instrumental and vocals
- Overseeing, connecting, and scheduling the worship team volunteers
- Collaborating with the Associate Pastor on audio and visual elements of worship
- Other responsibilities as needed according to your skill sets.

Qualifications:

- Be a believer in Jesus Christ who has a clear, observable, growing commitment to God and a desire to live out their personal relationship with Him before others.
- Be experienced in leading, or leading on a church worship team(s).
- Be led by God to invest in building a worship ministry.
- Have an authentic love for others, and desire to see others fall in love with Jesus.
- Be a team player who works well with others.
- Be willing to connect with a multi-generation congregation, incorporating both traditional and modern worship songs, and
- Be willing to plug into church ministry outside of Sunday services

Please send the following items to be considered for this position to Lead Pastor Lloyd Tremain at pastorlloyd@lakewoodnewhope.com:
