

We've done "FUN" right in Kansas City for almost three decades. Join our team as we setup bounce houses and carnival equipment. Yes, there's a bit of heavy lifting, but think of it as a free gym membership and we always work as a team. These open positions start at 20-25 hours per week and they pay between $13-$25 per hour.

Applicants must be responsible, have reliable transportation to work, and must be able to communicate well via cell phone. Hours vary with some weekend days to be expected. Need more hours, full time work with full benefits is available.

How to Apply? Reply and include a resume or some basic information like education, work history and availability. We'll get back to you right away!
